

Background: Bringing Innovations into Consulting and ERP Software deployment

SuitePro Consulting LLC NetSuite Solutions Provider

Who We Are

BRINGING INNOVATIONS INTO CONSULTING AND ERP SOFTWARE DEPLOYMENT

At the beginning of 2021, a discussion on a long age problem where ERP vendors and services providers lacked the technical knowhow of delivering successful projects beyond just a business software evolved into a boutique consultancy that specializes in helping clients focus more on what they know best giving them competitive advantage over their peers.

While hundreds of ERP vendors and services providers out there focusing on the technology and IT aspect of delivering ERP projects, we focus on solving specific business problems for our clients particularly when it comes to complying with tax, accounting, and regulatory laws.

We innovate Enterprise Software consulting with a solution that considers a global business, where CEOs and CFOs will no longer worry about implementing a solution that increases their international footprint, ensuring global compliance and makes them even more competitive in the international scene.

Our consulting team members

- Have the industry expertise to understand how you do your business and bring industry leading practices in your projects.
- Are international business experts, allowing clients to focus on their businesses while they ensure your ERP fully complies with international laws including transfer pricing, tax audits, VAT/GST, SOX, IFRS as well as your local country laws
- Understands the technologies required to do business and leverage it for you to stay competitive in these cloud age.

BRINGING INNOVATIONS INTO CONSULTING AND ERP SOFTWARE DEPLOYMENT

We talk with you at all stage of the projects. Most of our consulting time is spent understanding your business processes, the problems you are facing and scoping out a solution that don't just resolve your problems but help you focus on the things you do best to keep you competitive. The solutions we provide at later stage of project will be based on these discussions.

Gerald Klein Technical Director

Gerald brings to SuitePro over 20 years of NetSuite experience right from the days NetSuite was known as NetLedger.

He is a seasoned producer and developer, creating software solutions since 1984 with a proven track record of timely results. Well-known clients include Slack and Company, Budweiser, CBS, Paramount Pictures, BP-Amoco, JC-Whitney, Montgomery Ward's, and many others. He has made a career of creating robust software solutions on time and within budget.

His NetSuite career started in the winter of 1999-2000, He became aware of NetSuite, at a time it was called NetLedger. He was asked to build out a backend implementation for a website he had just finished. The website was on the MS Dotnet platform. He agreed and used NetSuite Webservices to implement site management from the public-facing site. Since that time, the percentage of his work dedicated to the NetSuite platform steadily increased to now, where it is his sole focus.
